Licensed for ceremonies for up to 180 guests, and a beautiful setting for a wedding breakfast. Captivating in its traditional surroundings, the Hall is decorated with historic paintings and heraldic shields. Several of the exquisite stained glass windows date back to 1462.

The Walks

Gray's Inn gardens are known as The Walks and were originally designed in 1606 by the then Treasurer, Sir Francis Bacon, whose statue can be seen in the South Square. The Walks remain among the largest private gardens in London: five acres of perfectly maintained park entered through a pair of impressive iron gates.

The Walks provide a peaceful oasis amidst the busy streets of Central London and are available throughout the year.

During the summer the Walks are equipped with a marquee, perfect for a summer wedding reception with ample private space for entertaining guests in beautiful surroundings. The Walks are also available all year round for drinks receptions and a picturesque spot for wedding photos.
